

Stitching each motif – if you have already stitched the borders, then you may need a little help with adding each motif to your design. The outer two borders of each motif will overlap the diamond borders. So the motif looks like this:

But if you have already stitched the borders, you will only stitch this:

The outer two lines of the diamond border are provided for reference and also for those who might want to stitch the motifs as individual projects.